FROM: [REDACTED]
Chief, Security Analysis Group

SUBJECT: Update of SECOMS's Study of Harassments and Provocations

REFERENCE: Memo to SECOM Members from C/SECOM dtd 24
September 1985; same subject

1. Per referent, the requested review of a draft update of the SECOM Harassments and Provocation Study has been completed. Case 9 appearing on page 23 is based on a submission of the Office of Security. As stated at the time of submission, the case must be classified at the secret level as it was derived from information contained in a report of another U. S. Government Agency which bore a secret level classification. (FOUO)

2. It is noted that the identity of the specific country involved has not been revealed in the draft and as a result it may be acceptable in its present form to the originating Agency. The Case was based on an FBI report dated 4 February 1985 entitled: Bulgarian Travel Matters. Prior to utilization of the case at the For Official Use Only level, SECOM should obtain FBI authorization. (S)
